Join us in celebrating our St. George anniversary on November 5, commemorating 95 years as a church community. To mark this occasion, we will have a special luncheon at the Social Center following the Liturgy. There is no set fee for the meal and any contribution will be applied to your 2023 stewardship.

Vespers in the Orthodox Church the liturgical day begins in the evening with the setting of the sun, following the Biblical account of creation: "And there was evening and there was morning, one day" (Gen 1.5). Vespers is the first service of the Daily Cycle, and it takes place after sunset in the early evening. It is a preparation service for the Divine Liturgy.

Vespers begin with the chanting of the evening psalm: ". . . the sun knows its time for setting, Thou makest darkness and it is night . . ." (Ps 104.19–20). Glorifying God's creation of the world, this psalm is man's first act of worship, for man first of all meets God as Creator.

The service of Vespers takes us through creation, sin, and salvation in Christ. It leads us to the meditation of God's word and the glorification of his love for men. It instructs us and allows us to praise God for the particular events or persons whose memory is celebrated and made present to us in the Church. It prepares us for the sleep of the night and the dawn of the new day to come. It begins our movement into the most perfect communion with God in the sacramental mysteries.

In our parish, there is a vigil service every Saturday and on the eve of every holy day during the week unless the priest is busy with another commitment. The vigil service consists of Vespers, Matins, and First Hour according to the Slavic tradition. All the faithful are encouraged to attend the vigils and other services as often as possible. After the vigil, is usually the time for confessions.

Some of you may have received a text with my name but with a different phone number, starting with 219,... Please be aware that those are scam texts and I didn't send them. The best way would be to block that number right now as I am investigating the scam texts with T-Mobile and the FCC. Fr Aleksandar
