Hope and pray you all have a great summer and enjoy it! Just a reminder to all parents and grandparents that the church school enrollment will start next month. You will get the enrollment forms electronically, plus the hard copies will be available in the church basement. Please remember to enroll your child/children in the church school program and bring them regularly! Church school will start on Sunday, September 14. After the liturgy, there will be a moleban for the beginning of school and the introduction classes. We can always use more teachers and subs. If you would like to teach, please let me know.

Apostolic fast ends on the Feast of SS Peter and Paul on July 12 and soon after the Dormition fast will begin on August 14 through the Feast of Dormition, August 28. This fasting season is very important and will last only two weeks. Kolo Slava Dormition- Velika Gospojina, will be celebrated on Sunday, August 31. We will prayerfully remember our sisters who passed away before us and ask God and the Theotokos for the good health and prosperity of the living sisters. All ladies from the parish should become an active member of the Kolo.

Often we hear the word Christening instead of Baptism. Here is what we can read about those two terms: Baptism is the religious sacrament or ritual of initiation into Christianity, typically involving the use of water (sprinkling, pouring, or immersion) to symbolize purification and the beginning of a new life in Christ. Christening, on the other hand, specifically refers to the naming ceremony where a child is given their Christian name, often during a baptism service. Baptism is definitely a much better word to use since we don't say St John the Christener but St John the Baptist!

See you all at the Church Picnic and please offer your help and see Dave Laketa to volunteer.

President Report-July 2025

I greet you with very sad news with the passing of Genevieve Ostoich, Roseanne Angelovich, and Dan Prieboy. Devoted parishioners all who were very dedicated to St. George's for a long, long time.

Memory Eternal.

In 2 weeks time we once again have our annual picnic at St. Joe's. I hope to see you all there. We have the best organizer to run this thing and his name is David Laketa. The profit is used for continuous improvement of our properties. Although good funds come from the rental of our Social Center to sustain us day to day, any further funds gathered could, and often do, pay for major construction and/or repairs. We recently repaired our Stryker Avenue entrance which reinforced the structure of the pavement as well as filled in a glaring hole. Credit to Phil for putting the bids together and getting this done.

We have some projects like an expensive fire alarm system upgrade to comply with current regulations and other smaller to-do list items.

In the meantime, enjoy your summer.

Sincerely,

Dan Dorsey

President

ST GEORGE EXECUTIVE CHURCH SCHOOL BOARD

JULY 2025

We hope everyone is enjoying a peaceful and joyful summer. Here are a few updates from your St George Church Board.

Improvements and Maintenance

We recently made a change to our lawn care services after assessing several bids. The Board selected Seasons Landscaping to handle our ground's maintenance.

In addition, we approved a quote from Premier Asphalt for needed road repairs near the arch entrance on Stryker Avenue. The work has been completed and looks great.

In Loving Memory

Over the past several weeks, we mourn the loss of three cherished parishioners: Genevieve Ostoich, Roseanne Angelovich and Daniel Prieboy. Each of them exemplified a deep faith and a lifelong dedication to St George. Active in numerous church organizations, they consistently offered their time and talents whenever there was a need. Their absence really leaves a significant void in our parish community.

May we honor their memory by continuing to serve with the same kind and generous spirit they faithfully showed. We extend our heartfelt condolences to their families, Kumovi and dear friends. May their memories be eternal. They shall be deeply missed by all of us at St George.

Serbfest 2025

Mark your calendars for our annual St. George SerbFest taking place on Sunday, July 20th, at St. Joe's Park, 700 Theodore St, Joliet. The event will run from 12:00pm to 9:00 pm.

SerbFest is our most important fundraiser and helps sustain our parish financially throughout the year. Your participation is essential!!!!

David Laketa is once again serving as the chairperson. Please reach out to David if you can lend support in any way. We still need volunteers. David can be reached at 815-263-3842 or dlaketa@stfrancis.edu

Baked Goods For SerbFest

We will be selling baked goods and pastries at SerbFest. This area makes a substantial profit due to all the talented bakers in our parish. We need donated homemade pastries, especially any ethnic items such as potica, cakes, breads, cookies, pies, etc. Since there is no refrigeration at the park, we ask that you only bring non-refrigerated items or we will have issues with the Health Department.

Please drop off your bakery items on Saturday, July 19 at the lower level of our Social Center between 9-11 am. At that time, it will be sliced, packaged and uniformly priced for the next day. If you cannot be there at that time, please let Elizabeth Laketa (630-247-1341) or David Laketa (815-263-3842) know in order to make other arrangements.

Many people are allergic to nuts, so if nuts are used in your baking, please indicate that on the packaging.

If you are only able to bring your bakery items to the picnic on Sunday, they must be packaged and ready to sell in disposable containers such as Ziploc bags, paper plates or clear clam food holders. Unfortunately, there will not be any cutting or packaging of baked goods at the event.

Let's Make This Another Successful SerbFest!

Why Do We Need Morning and Evening Prayers?

Priest Andrei Chizhenko speaks on the healing power of morning and evening prayer rules.

PRIEST ANDREI CHIZHENKO | 28 OCTOBER 2020

Recently, His Beatitude Metropolitan Onuphry of Kiev and All Ukraine said interesting words in one of his sermons. They were about the world trying to enthrall a person's prayer and dissolve his union with God.

Indeed, the vanity of this vale of life is trying to overwhelm a person and drown him, as the raging sea did with the Apostle Peter trying to walk on water to Christ. The main thing here is not to lose the course and keep the direction of the soul towards God. He is always ready to help.

Satisfying our passions in this chase of material values, effeminacy and comfort, we lose the most important thing – our union with God, a dialogue with the living God, which is the “one thing needed”, as the Church Fathers often say repeating the Gospel words.

This becomes especially evident in the example of a Christian’s attitude to morning and evening prayer rules.

Oh, how very often we do not have any desire to read them! And among the many available excuses are: “I’m very tired”, “I want to watch my favourite TV series”, “I need to spend time on social networks”, “I have to chat with my family, friends or relatives”, “I need to work until late at night”, and so on and so on.

But let us be honest with ourselves and, with God’s help, look below the surface in this issue. The vanity of earthly life has not only bodily or material properties. Like an octopus, it penetrates our minds, souls and hearts, poisoning them. The need to be in this bustle for many hours every day becomes a kind of an addiction, that we can no longer live without. Roughly speaking, a person may be sitting still, but there is no peace in his soul. His hands and knees are already “dancing”, trying to run and dive into this commotion. Why is alcoholism so common? It is because of its “switching” action rapidly inhibiting the mind. How often do we hear phrases like “I drink to relax” or “I can’t relax any other way” from an alcoholic? Indeed, this continuous run through the vale of earthly life with its external and internal vanity is difficult for our psyche to withstand. It results in constant stress and constant nervous tension.

But there is a much better and safer way out, the way of prayer. From the analogy with the alcoholics’, our motto could be “I pray to relax”. However, people pray much less than they drink. Why? Because in drunkenness, you do not need to make any initial effort whereas in prayer that effort is absolutely necessary. What exactly is that effort?

Making a start of a prayer rule is a rather painful process. One needs to break out of this endless circle, as if he was pulling a leg out of a swamp. More precisely, it is not a single leg, but the whole body. God knows how painful and hard it is! It’s like some kind of a surgical operation amputating you from the world. Your body parts creak and groan like tackle on an old wooden sailboat. Many parts of you resist prayer. And you’re so tired... Ever so tired! But if you do not give up and continue with the prayer rule, then a miracle happens. It often happens quite unexpectedly and may be a total surprise for you. Suddenly you feel as if the sun peeked out through impenetrable leaden clouds. You feel a whole different world. It may seem to you that you have been saying the prayer absentmindedly, without due attention, but suddenly one single word opens the door to God for you. Letting you approach Him, He Himself enters your dwelling. Everything in you suddenly becomes cleansed, even and “unravelling”. And then the light comes making it feel as if one person stood up for prayer, and a completely different person finished it.

That is the healing and purifying spiritual effect of the prayer rule! After all, our main task on this earth is to learn to talk with the living God. Everything else is just water running away through a leaky sieve, or sand flowing through our fingers.

Kolo Sestara News

We mourn the passing of two of our members: +Genevieve Ostoich and +Roseanne Angelovich.

May their memories be eternal.

Kolo sisters are preparing for Serbfest. Several sisters gathered in late June for a pita-baking gathering in the church hall kitchen. Many thanks to Tana P, Nancy C and her grandson Luka, Nadine P, Draginja, Kathy P, and Protinica for their pita-making efforts last week. Thirteen cherry and twelve apple pita are ready for sale. Thanks also to Father for all his help shopping and cleaning up, and to Nadine O and Susan K for donating funds to purchase the ingredients.

Please forgive me if I missed someone.

Just a reminder, you don't need to be a member of Kolo to bake for the festival. All contributions are welcome!

The refrigerator in Father and Protinica's home needed to be replaced, as it was over ten years old and was malfunctioning. After researching numerous options, Father, Protinica, and the board found a good deal, and Father and Protinica can face these hot summer days with a bit less stress.

Upcoming events:

- August – Kolo Slava August 31
- September – Cevap Luncheon (date not yet determined)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I pray that all are enjoying a healthy and relaxing summer thus far. Also, that everyone had a wonderful 4th of July holiday.

Mita's has more blessings to share with the the Saint George Church family:

- Theodore Prieboy and Kenna Belle Roberts are engaged! The wedding will be June 20, 2026! Theodore met Kenna (a proud Texan) at Tulane University and they became engaged this past December! Looking forward to celebrate, sing, and dance... and Kenna has already mastered several Kolos!! Congratulations to our great-voice choir member, Theodore, and fiancée Kenna, and the whole Prieboy family! Živeli nam mnogaja ljeta!

- Zora Goljić graduated with a Bachelor of Science from DePaul University in Chicago. She majored in Finance and minored in Business Management. And she also just accepted a job offer, giving her a great opportunity right out of school! Congratulations to Zora and the entire Goljić family! Živela nam mnogaja ljeta!

- It's official...The Mitas will be represented in Serbia. Michelle Efatoski, Holly Goljić, Zora Goljić, and Zvezdana Goljić, as well as former Mitas Melissa Srečković and Dan Jovanovich, and other Jovanovich family members will sing responses as a family choir for liturgy in the Church of the Holy Nativity in Pirot, Serbia, on Sunday, July 13, 2025. This writer is confident that all the Jovanovich family members who sing in the choir of angels will participate from Heaven in this blessed event as well. This is where their grandfather/great-grandfather, +George Jovanovich, Sr., was baptized in 1887. Ako Bog da, the service will be live-streamed on Facebook!

In addition to the celebratory news above, Mitas is deeply saddened by the unexpected and sudden loss of a dear member of the choir family. We extend sincere condolences to lifetime singers Rebecca Prieboy, Eliya (Abriya) Prieboy, Theodore (Kenna Roberts) Prieboy, and Matthew Prieboy on the falling asleep in the Lord of their beloved husband and father, +Daniel Prieboy. +Dan was a dedicated choir supporter, an active member of the entire Church community, and friend to everyone who had the pleasure of meeting him. May God grant peace to his family and all his loved ones, may the choir of angels sing him to his rest, and may his memory be eternal! As always, Mitas welcome all interested singers! Expand your Church family by singing in the choir! Come to the choir loft and we would be happy to get you started on your Serbian choir endeavors!

Looking forward to sharing more good news with the parishioners and friends of St. George Church in future issues of The Serb. Until then...

Musically yours, Holly Goljić Reporter, SSS Mita Topalovich

Why Do Our Children Get Out of Control?

Archimandrite Markell (Pavuk), spiritual father of the Kiev Theological Schools, replies.

Once again some people will say that this monk should mind his own business, but nowadays it is a crime for anyone to keep quiet about the following issue: More and more often, many parents have begun to complain about their children becoming uncontrollable over time. Until the age of 12-14, they gladly go to the church, they are diligent and obedient, but as they grow up, they begin to spend a lot of time on social media, having fun with friends, getting a girlfriend or boyfriend, and their parents' will does not matter to them at all. Some of them achieve career success, and now children grow up very quickly, so they consider themselves self-sufficient and do not need any guidance. The conflict between children and parents in some families reaches its highest level: they do not talk at all, and every word or action of the opposing party causes irritation, reproaches, and scandals.

The reasons for such relationships may vary: lack of parental attention to children due to their workload at work; the influence of friends whose authority becomes higher than that of their parents; the extremes of strict discipline on the one hand, when literally every step of the children is under control, and on the other hand, the extreme of excessive liberty when parents indulge all the whims of their children and constantly give them complete freedom in decision-making. Another frequent cause of conflict between parents and children is the breakdown of the family. In this case, the authority of the father and mother is usually multiplied by zero in the eyes of the child. The deep psychological wound that is inflicted on children as a result of a family breakdown usually does not heal until the end of their days.

As we can see, both sides are to blame for the confrontation between parents and children, but the greater responsibility for parenting shortcomings rests with parents.

Is it possible to correct something over time? It is almost impossible for people, but everything is possible for God. First of all, without expecting any payoff, parents should take their cross, that is, they should strive to show their children not constant reproaches, but love. It should be expressed not only in gifts, but also in words of support, praise, and empathy. All of this may be in vain if there is no ongoing prayer for their children, no real church life with an emphasis not on social service or pilgrimages to holy places (that is not out of question, but should be done judiciously!), but on overcoming their sins and passions. It should be geared towards kindling the fire of faith in the soul of a young man or a girl. If they have such a light in their hearts, the children will definitely pay attention to the commandment of God "Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee."
